NOTICE OF EXHIBITION

LOTS WILL BE ON EXHIBITION ON AUGUST 13TH FROM 9:00 A.M. TO 6:00 P.M. AND ON AUGUST 14TH FROM 10:00 A.M. TO 5:00 P.M. IN THE BOURSE ROOM AT THE HOLIDAY INN EMBARCADERO HOTEL. PRIOR TO THAT TIME, LOTS MAY BE VIEWED AT THE OFFICE OF THE CATALOGUER DAILY FROM 9:00 A.M. TO 5:00 P.M. OR BY APPOINTMENT.

TERMS OF SALE

1. This is a public and mail bid auction sale held in conjunction with the Summer National Collectibles Exposition. All lots will be sold on August 14, 1983.
2. All floor sales are final, and no lots may be returned for any reason by floor bidders.
3. Bidders who are unknown to us must furnish acceptable credit references or submit a deposit equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids to assure acceptance of such bids.
4. Mail bids are to be entered by lot number as catalogued. Mail bidders should feel free to bid as much as they want, realizing that all such bids are treated as limits, and that all lots will be sold below these limits when competition allows. At the same time, the cataloguer reserves the right to refuse totally ridiculous bids, or those bids which in his opinion are not entered in good faith.
5. Each lot will be opened by the auctioneer at a small advance over the second highest mail bid received. In the event that there is no bid on that lot, the bidding will originate from the floor.
6. Prices estimated following each lot reflect the current market, and are intended solely as a guide to bidders. You may bid higher or lower as you wish. However, it has been our experience that in a public auction, bids which fall substantially below estimates are generally not successful.
7. Terms of this sale are strictly cash, payable in United States funds. Payment is due upon receipt of notification or lots. Title to all lots remains with the cataloguer until paid for in full. We reserve the right to withhold delivery of lots until payment has been received.
8. California state sales tax of 6% will be added to the cost of all lots delivered within California unless a valid resale number is on file with us.
9. No lots awarded to mail bidders may be returned without written permission, and all requests for such permission must be made within three (3) days of receipt of lots. All lots are as described. We do realize that there exists the possibility of errors and typographical mistakes. Any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot, however, be responsible for your errors; so check your bid sheets carefully prior to submitting them.
10. All lots mailed to addresses in the United States will be shipped insured or registered. Lots sent to addresses outside of the U. S. will be sent at the risk of the purchaser. Whenever possible, insurance will be provided; however, it should be realized that adequate insurance is often not available outside of the United States.
11. There is no charge for executing mail bids.
12. All postage, shipping and insurance costs will be billed to the purchaser. In addition, there will be a handling charge of fifty cents (50¢) per lot added to cover the cost of packing and processing.

It is with great pride and pleasure that I have the opportunity, for the third time in my career, to handle one of the rarest works in American numismatic literature. The first sold in my second mail bid sale last May for $900.00. I subsequently sold another copy via private treaty to a well known bibliophile for a sum in excess of $1,000.00. While the first two copies were indeed fine examples of this masterful study, the present piece is easily the finest of the three. Privately printed by the author, it is widely accepted that no more than fifty copies were originally published. It is the consensus of knowledgeable collectors that probably less than twenty-five examples have survived. Long under-appreciated, this magnificent reference is just beginning to achieve the recognition it is due. Expect strong bidding on this one. 1,250.00

COMPLETE SET OF THE 116 AUCTION SALES PRESENTED BY B. MAX MEHL

LOT 191

It is with great pride and pleasure that I offer to you now the perhaps unique opportunity to obtain a complete set of the auction catalogues prepared by B. Max Mehl, the undisputed "Dean of twentieth century professional numismatists."

Born in Lithuania in 1884, Mehl arrived in the United States in 1893. As early as 1903 he was advertising coins for sale in "The Numismatist," beginning a career which would span nearly fifty-five years until his death on September 27, 1957. During this time he catalogued one hundred and sixteen auction sales, numbering among them the cabinets of the most honored and respected luminaries of modern numismatics.

Never one to feign modesty, Mehl was the innovator of the use of the mass media to promote his profession. Advertising in non-numismatic publications, as well as on radio, Mehl soon became known to millions of Americans who previously had not even known the meaning of the word numismatist. Business soared and Mehl, at the height of his career, had more than one hundred employees working in the mail room of his "coin factory." The late Abe Kosoff once wrote in one of his "Coin World" columns that it had been widely reported that on one particular day, more than half of all the mail arriving in Ft. Worth was addressed to Mehl.

The names of the collections sold by this little giant from way down in Texas are legendary—Granberg, Ten Eyck, Cowell, Smith, Manning, Dunham, Atwater, Neil, Olsen, Roach, Farouk, Kern and numerous others. If a major rarity was sold in the first half of this century, it most assuredly was handled by B. Max Mehl.

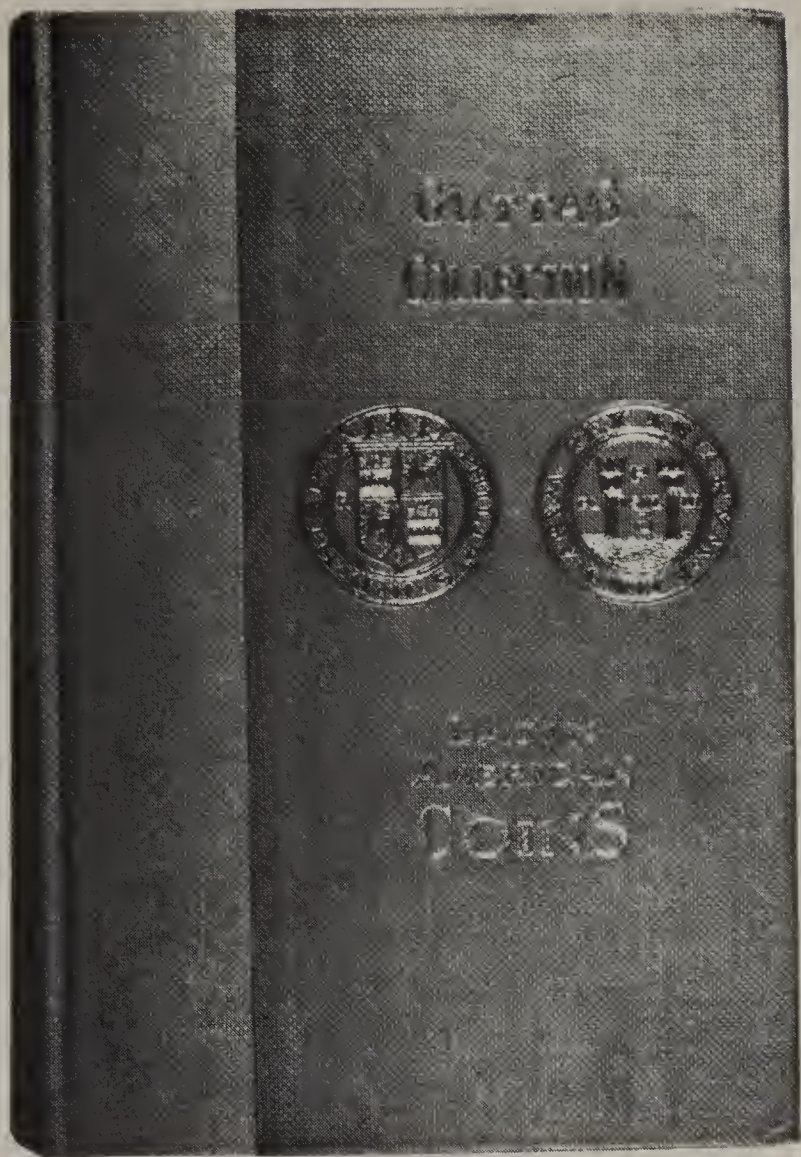

The present offering is the first instance of which I am aware that a complete run of these wonderfully prepared catalogues have crossed the auction block. It is probable that each of the sales has been offered individually at one time or another in the past, but I can find no single listing for the entire set. I am aware of a set which changed hands in 1982 through private treaty, and it is nearly certain that other complete sets exist in personal libraries. But it is a matter of record that such a set does not reside in the vast holdings of the American Numismatic Society. Their series lacks the sale of Feb. 17, 1912 (Eastwood) for completion.

And now, I present for your kind consideration the catalogues of Mr. B. Max Mehl.

231. NUMISMA. New Netherlands Coin Co., New York. 1954-1960. Set of 26 (of 27) issues of perhaps the finest house organ published in the second half of this century. Very fine to mint copies. Scarce and in great demand. Lacking only Vol. IV, No. 5 for completeness. 100.00
232. NUMISMA. Another set. 24 issues. Lacking Vol. I, No. 4, Vol. IV, No. 5 and whole number 24. Also contains prices realized list for mail bid sale of Nov. 28, 1958, which was offered in whole number 24. Very fine to mint copies. Scarce. 75.00
233. THE NUMISMATIST. American Numismatic Association. 1894-1981. Vol. VII through Vol. 94, No. 6. Eighty-eight and one half years inclusive. Volumes VII through XXV are bound in various bindings, some chipped, rubbed and worn. Volumes XXVI through LXXIV uniformly bound in black cloth gilt, a number a bit rubbed. Balance in original card covers as issued. Internal condition, overall, is fine. Like the earlier lot 213 of the "American Journal of Numismatics," with some minor restoration and binding work, a potentially fine set. Most of the bound volumes, specifically the earlier years, have been bound with the original covers removed from the individual issues. Lacking the first six volumes which are exceedingly rare, with probably no more than ten complete sets extant, this offering represents an unusual opportunity to obtain one of the most eagerly sought journals in American numismatics. 3,000.00
234. THE NUMISMATIST. Volumes 1-6. 1888-1893. 1963 reprint. Crimson cloth gilt. Mint copy. Scarce and out of print. Essential for the completion of the series. 75.00
235. THE NUMISMATIST. Another copy of the reprint of the first six volumes. Mint. 75.00
236. THE INDEPENDENT CHRONICLE AND THE UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER. Boston, Feb. 11, 1779. Early American colonial newspaper. Masthead, from a design by Paul Revere, pictures a cut of a Continental soldier holding the Declaration of Independence in one hand, and protecting it with a sword in the other. Taken from the famous "sword in hand" Massachusetts paper money of the period, designed by Revere. Number of interesting articles of numismatic or historical importance. Congress orders the issuance of new paper money in 16 denominations "according to a Resolution of Congress of the 14th of January, 1779," with proof sheet table distributed to prevent counterfeiting. Also, long letter by Richard Henry Lee, defending himself against accusations by Silas Deane, the recalled Commissioner to France, who is himself charged by Arthur Lee and Thomas Paine of abusing his office. It was Lee who, in Congress, had moved on June 7, 1776, that "these united colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states." He signed the Declaration of Independence and Articles of Confederation. Other interesting articles concern our fight for liberty. The British, invading Georgia, take Savannah, and 2900 of their soldiers attack 600 Americans, killing many. While there is still no declaration of war between France and England, there are now 8,000 French seamen in captivity. The Dutch and the Russians are also dismayed with the British, and have undertaken to protect their shipping. A truly important piece of early Americana. Paper a bit yellowed and fragile, but not a bad piece considering that it is on old rag paper and was published over two hundred years ago. "Rev. Mr. J. Mansfield" annotated at top of front page. Rare and important. 150.00
237. THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE. December, 1788. London. 96 pp., ill. Magazine has a fine engraving of a Nova Constellatio coin dated 1783, described as "a new American coin" in one place, and "American Half-penny" in the table of contents. On the same page are engravings of an English Medal and token. Also, a three page history of book auction catalogues. Lacking covers (?). Binding suspect. Otherwise, not a bad copy. 21½ x 13 cm. Rare. 65.00

238. THE CONNECTICUT COURANT, AND WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER. Hartford, June 18, 1787. Newspaper containing three and a half columns of arguments in the Connecticut House of Representatives over Rhode Island's proclaiming their paper money a legal tender in all states. "Creditors from the state (R.I.) come here (Conn.), and by our standing laws, collect gold and silver; while our citizens can collect of their debtors in Rhode Island nothing but paper money at six or seven to one." Also, a list of taxes to be paid and the money in which they should be paid, whether state notes, soldiers' notes or hard money. Minor spine margin water-staining, and a bit foxed, else a nice early newspaper with a lot of paper money content. 75.00
239. THE BEDFORD GAZETTE. Bedford, Penn., Aug. 25, 1837. Most of this newspaper is taken up with anti-shin plaster talk. Included are the words to two songs ("Rags, rags, we can't endure them"), an anagram composed of the letters s-h-i-n-p-l-a-s-t-e-r, and a fine page one article concerning a town meeting "in favor of Jackson money as a circulating medium, gold & silver." A fine paper filled with the feelings of the period, and outstanding as a source of colorful information for the writer, researcher or numismatist. 65.00
240. THE INDEPENDENT CHRONICLE AND THE UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER. Jan. 1, 1879 (New Year's Day). The paper prints a highly detailed description of a Continental Dollar of 1776, then puts forward the suggestion as to its origin. Is it or is it not correct? A fine extremely early mention of these mystery coins. Masthead engraving is of an Indian holding a bow and arrow, virtually identical to the design on the Massachusetts cent and half cent of 1787 and 1788. Tape repair on front page, and large chunk torn out, not affecting the subject content. Rare and of importance to the researcher. 85.00
241. AMERICAN MERCURY. Hartford, June 10 (9?), 1803. An act "to prolong the continuance of the mint at Philadelphia" is among four articles on the front page signed in type by President Thomas Jefferson. Large heraldic eagle is virtually identical to the eagle on the silver coinage of the period. A newspaper suitable for framing despite some wear and tear at the spine and a bit of foxing here and there. 55.00
242. THE WEEKLY REGISTER. Baltimore, Oct., 10, 1812. 16 pp. Magazine containing an "Explanation of the Devises on the Continental Bills of Credit" (currency), as copied from a 1777 almanac. Takes up 1½ pages. Also, letter from Captain Zachary Taylor to Gen. William Henry Harrison, telling of several hundred Indians attacking Ft. Harrison. Highly interesting message from one future president to another. Lacking covers (?). Bit yellowed. 24 x 15 cm. 30.00
243. BOSTON DAILY ADVERTISER & PATRIOT. July 16, 1832. 2 pp. Contains a complete printing of President Andrew Jackson's message vetoing the recharter of the Second Bank of the United States. Three and one half columns. Also, on page one is a bank note table and a list of broken banks. Overall, a fairly nice piece. 40.00
244. DAILY ALTA CALIFORNIA. San Francisco, Mar. 4, 1852. Has advertisement from Curtis, Perry & Ward, announcing that they are continuing the business of Moffat & Co., and will issue gold coins of .884 fineness under the name U. S. Assay Office. Great early gold rush newspaper. Few stains and minor tear at outer edge. 45.00
245. THE SAN FRANCISCO DAILY HERALD. Mar. 29, 1855. 4 pp. Great advertisement by Wass, Molitor & Co., gold rush private coiners, answering the petition from several bankers and merchants that they begin coining their gold pieces. Also, letter from Honest Harvey Meiggs to the editor of the "Herald," proclaiming his innocence following his famous "disappearing" act. Few stains else a nice piece. 35.00
246. DAILY ALTA CALIFORNIA. July 26, 1855. 4 pp. James King of William, famous gold rush banker and private coiner, pens a lengthy reply to an earlier communication. In his letter, King tells of his earlier years as a banker and the events which caused the closing of his bank. Also a list of the assets he was forced to sell to protect his customers. Outstanding details regarding the affairs of one of the most colorful characters in numismatics. Below King's letter is a very devastating letter addressed to King from "One of the People." Fascinating gold rush newspaper. Bit aged, but fine. 85.00

247. DAILY ALTA CALIFORNIA. Oct. 15, 1855. 8 pp. Contains a long page one article decrying the public being forced to use foreign coins in circulation at considerably more than their face value, and what can be done about it. Splendid gold rush paper in excellent condition. 45.00
248. DAILY ALTA CALIFORNIA. Dec. 2, 1855. 4 pp. Includes complete mintage report from the San Francisco mint covering January 1-December 1, 1855. Mint to close for one month to be put in "fresh condition." Another excellent gold rush newspaper. 40.00
249. THE PURITAN RECORDER. Boston, Aug. 6, 1857. 4 pp. Interesting article in which the writer takes us on a tour of the Philadelphia Mint Museum, and then through the coinage area, where we witness the striking of the "new" (Flying Eagle) cents and their subsequent weighing. Interesting article. 30.00
250. SACRAMENTO DAILY UNION. Jan. 21, 1862. Contains a description of the new interest-bearing Treasury Notes of Aug. 19, 1861. Some spine wear and minor yellowing. Otherwise, a fairly nice piece. 25.00
251. DAILY RICHMOND EXAMINER. Virginia, Nov. 5, 1863. A Confederate newspaper gives the value of Confederate money and how it compares to gold. A two page issue, as was common by this time because of the paper shortage down South. Paper is damaged, having two chunks out of one side affecting the type. Extensive wear and tear, but a splendid piece for its information and "feel" of the times and circumstances. 50.00
252. SACRAMENTO DAILY UNION. Jan. 21, 1864. Article describing each denomination of the new National Currency Notes, which "will be issued in a few days." A full column article. Minor spine wear and tear, and small tear at bottom of front page. Otherwise, a nice copy. 35.00
253. SACRAMENTO DAILY UNION. Feb. 3, 1864. 8 pp. Tells of the seizure of Confederate money plates at a New York printer's establishment, together with the capture of the manufacturer, Winthrop G. Hilton, and some of his men. Also, a look at the character of President Lincoln, "a not perfect man, and yet more precious than fine gold." Much Civil War news. Splendid issue, worth a hearty bid. Minor spine chipping, else fine. 45.00
254. THE STOCK EXCHANGE. (SUPPLEMENT). San Francisco, June 14, 1876. Broadside supplement mainly listing the current prices of mining stocks. The masthead has a gorgeous engraving of, curiously, the reverse of a Trade Dollar. Prominent is a very clear "CC" mintmark. This leads to an interesting speculation: did the engraver merely pick up a trade dollar and copy it exactly, with no knowledge of the meaning of the "CC," or; did the editor deliberately put the mintmark in to represent the paper's connection with Nevada mining interests as well as that of California? Whatever the reason, this fine piece would look just dandy hanging on the wall of a den. Small tear at right edge. 45.00

These fine catalogues are recognized and cherished for the quality of description, attribution and illustration contained within their pages. It would be difficult to name a single rarity in numismatics which has not been handled by this firm. Indeed, nine of the ten world's price records are presently possessed by Bowers & Marena Galleries. Beginning with Champa, and continuing on with the cabinets of such numismatic luminaries as Rothert, Montgomery, Pearl, Garrett, Hetrich and Eliasberg, the catalogues are invaluable for the depth of research available to the numismatic scholar. 286. Baseggio, Lorenzo. LA SCIENZA DELLE MEDAGLE ANTICHE E MODERNE. Venice, 1728. (14), 454 pp., engraved frontis, 10 foldout plates. Paper wraps, original, but virtually disbound. All signatures intact and clean with a very few pages dogearred. Light foxing on some pages and about half of the plates have tanned, but all are very legible. Plates are simple woodcuts, but frontis appears to be a drypoint. Owner's name at foot of title page has been cut out, resulting in an irregularly shaped hole about ½" x 3" but does not affect any text matter. Has an elaborate watermark in the paper, but unable to identify. Apparently, this is a pirated copy of Louis Jobert, but Lipsius does not list this edition under Jobert. Wraps must be rated as "poor," but interior will grade very good—perhaps fine—considering age. Regardless, a nice specimen of the printers'/binders' trades of the early eighteenth century. In Italian. Rare. 100.00

ADDITIONAL UNITED STATES NUMISMATICS

323. Browning, Ard W. THE EARLY QUARTER DOLLARS OF THE UNITED STATES 1796-1838; WITH A FEW REMARKS CONCERNING THEIR TYPES, VARIETIES AND RARITY. New York, 1925. 36 pp., 8 magnificent linen-backed photographic plates of quarters. Original crimson cloth gilt. From the description given in Frank Katen's 56th sale catalogue, I surmise that this copy is as nice as lot #55 in that sale, and should command a price commensurate with the Katen piece which was knocked down for $1,600.00. A nearly very fine copy of one of the rarest and most desirable works in American numismatics. Reportedly, only fifty copies printed, and this one must rank as perhaps one of the finest available. After nearly sixty years, still the standard reference. An unusual opportunity to acquire one of the classics of the science. C-S 3433. Sigler 352. 23 x 16 cm. Rare. Ink stamp of previous owner on bottom page edges. 1,500.00

324. Crosby, Sylvester Sage. THE EARLY COINS OF AMERICA. New York, 1970. The Burt Franklin reprint of the colonial standard. 378 pp., 10 plates. As new. 30.00

Second edition. 39 pp., 17 plates, two test notes tipped in, one with a small ($\frac{1}{2}$ "") tear at fold. Front cover appears to have been damp at one time. Containing Specimens of the Mark Newbie Coppers, And the Issues of 1786-7-8: With the Obverses, Reverses and Combinations of the Different Varieties of the Latter; And a Detailed Description of the Distinctive Differences and Rarity. Philadelphia, 1881. 16, (1) pp., mammoth double page photographic plate of coins prepared by Gutekunst. Covers a bit shaky with wear at extremities and spine. Also coming loose, but with a little work, easily restored. Tape at ends of spine. Internally, a fine copy of this magnificent folio sized volume. 48 x 30 cm. Quite rare and very important. Reportedly, only fifty copies were originally printed, with about thirty-five being sold, and the balance destroyed. It would seem improbable that more than a handful, perhaps twenty copies, exist today. In the Kolbe sale of June, 1981, two copies brought \$3,500.00 and \$2,500.00 respectively. Certainly one of the rarest of the rare and not likely to appear again in the near future. An unusual opportunity to acquire one of the truly rare and important works in numismatics. C-S 3387. Sigler 1683. 3,000.00

An opportunity to obtain the "hard" ones. 750.00
338. Yeoman, R. S. A GUIDE BOOK OF UNITED STATES COINS. Seventh edition. 1954-1955. Bit shaky. Covers very good; contents fine. 40.00

EARLY AMERICAN COLONIAL AND STATE ISSUES AND UNITED STATES PATTERNS AND THE REGULAR ISSUES. Dec. 7-17, 1921. xii, 653 pp., 7,302 lots, 42 plates. Photocopy of prices realized list laid in. Of the 42 plates, 34 are original, and eight are exact reproductions, virtually indistinguishable from the others. From the library of Wayte Raymond, though not so identified. Unfortunately, Raymond saw fit to often clip photographs from plated sales catalogues for inclusion in his "Standard Catalogue." A previous owner, recognizing the importance and desirability of this magnificent work, happily took great pains to secure another copy and from it was able to reproduce faithfully the eight damaged plates in the present piece. Later in the libraries of John J. Ford, Jr., Jack Collins and Cal Wilson. Bound in modern full white pebble-grained morocco gilt in the style of the original. Lovely marbled endpapers enhance this beautiful example. Overall, a very fine copy of the finest auction catalogue yet prepared in the United States. Thick quarto weighing more than six pounds. 30 x 24 cm. 2,500.00

Original card covers with small piece torn from corner on front. Some minor soiling on front flyleaf. Announcement slip laid in. Scarce and desirable early large size Mehl catalogue. Overall, about fine. It was with this sale that Mehl announced (on rear cover) that he was about to relocate in New York around May 1, 1912. As we all know, he did move north for a short while, but his next auction sale was held in Ft. Worth, as were all of the other 115 sales conducted by Mehl. 45.00
349. Mehl, B. Max. CATALOG OF THE GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER COINS OF ENGLAND, ITS COLONIES AND POSSESSIONS. ANCIENT GREEK AND ROMAN COINS . . . THE PROPERTY OF MR. D. THOS. REES. Mar. 27, 1928. 109 pp., 1,411 lots, 4 plates, frontis portrait of Rees. Original prices realized list laid in. Oversized card covers a bit flaked and chipped at edges. 355. Reed, Ira. Lot of sixteen auction catalogues. 1936-1940. Sales No. V-XXI inclusive, lacking only No. XII. A very scarce offering as Reed's catalogues seem not to have had a wide distribution, and it would appear from present availability that they were not retained by collectors. It is seldom that these sales are offered, and much more so as a large grouping such as this. All in original printed card covers. Generally fine copies. 100.00
356. Stack's. RARE COINS AND MEDALS. Oct. 28, 1939. 40 pp., 928 lots. List of estimated values tipped in. A fine copy of an early Stack's sale. Very scarce and in demand. 25.00

359. Stack's. RARE UNITED STATES AND PIONEER GOLD COINS. Dec. 16, 1939. 12 pp., 186 lots, 7 full page plates of coins. Bottom of front cover a trifle dusty, else a very fine copy. Very scarce and in demand. Few of the early Stack's sales contained illustrations, much less plates. Estimates tipped in. 35.00
360. Stack's. 8TH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NEW ENGLAND NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION. Oct. 11-12, 1952. 32 pp., 1,329 lots. Overall, a fine, sound copy of perhaps the most elusive post-1950 Stack's catalogue. Important and scarce. 25.00

MISCELLANEOUS AND OUT OF PLACE

363. Empire Coin Co. AN OUTSTANDING SELECTION OF UNITED STATES PATTERN COINS. FEATURING THE INCOMPARABLE COLLECTION OF MAJOR LENOX J. LOHR. Binghamton, 1961. Fixed price list offering nearly 1,500 fine patterns. Scarce and eagerly sought early "Bowers & Ruddy" item. Near mint copy. 35.00
364. Frey, Albert R. & Frossard, Ed. THE COPPER COINS OF THE UNITED STATES. BEING THE ACTUAL PRICES REALIZED FOR COINS AT AUCTION DURING 1900-1901. New York, 1901. 56 pp. Flexible black cloth gilt somewhat worn at extremities. Contents fine save for two pages yellowed as a result of an old note laid in. Very scarce little piece. 17 x 10 cm. 50.00
365. Canadian Numismatic Association. C. N. A. JOURNAL. 1956-1972. Vol. I, No. 1 through Vol. 17, No. 12 inclusive. First seventeen volumes of the C. N. A. publication. All fine, sound copies. Scarce this complete. Original card covers. 250.00
366. COIN AND MEDAL BULLETIN. Published by Edgar H. Adams & Wayte Raymond. First series, 1916-1917. Vol. I, No. 1 through Vol. II, No. 3 inclusive. Very scarce early twentieth century "house organ." Unusual in that it was a joint effort by two separate dealerships. All in original illustrated paper covers. A few minor spots on first issue, else all fine copies. It is rare to find even individual issues of this fine journal, and virtually impossible to find an offering of a complete set. Adams and Raymond discontinued publication with Vol. II, No. 3, with Raymond later (1923-1931) resuming it on his own. From the library of G. L. Tilden though not so identified. C-S 174. 22½ x 15 cm. 100.00
367. COIN AND MEDAL BULLETIN. Published by Wayte Raymond. New Series. 1923-1931. Raymond's later effort (see previous lot) containing Nos. 1, 5, 11, 12, 14, 15 & 16. Original paper wraps a bit discolored else generally fine copies. Scarce. C-S 174. 35.00
368. COLLECTORS NOTE BOOK. Devoted to Stamps, Coins, Paper Money, Curiosities, Autographs, Books, Indian Relics, Mineralogy, Natural History, Etc. Published by Thomas Burnett and later by Robert Wythe. 1903-1905. Vol. 1, No. 1 through Vol. 3, No. 2 and Vol. 3, No. 4. Another early twentieth century periodical devoted to the science. The first extensive run that the present cataloguer has seen. Clain-Stafanelli indicates publishing dates of 1903-1905, so it is certain that nearly the entire series is represented, possibly lacking only Vol. 3, No. 3. Very scarce. Covers are a bit discolored, but in general, these are fine copies. C-S 194. 19 x 13 cm. Fourteen pieces. 50.00
369. THE ELDER MAGAZINE. Published by Thomas L. Elder. 1910-1911. Vol. I, Nos. 1, 3, 4, 11-12 & Vol. II, No. 1. Elder's successor to his earlier house organ, "The Numismatic Philistine." Elder, always known as one of the hobby's more outspoken devotees, dropped publication of the "Philistine" after only two issues as explained in the preface to the new publication: "The 'Numismatic Philistine' is no more. Doubtless the mourners will be few. While it may have performed a few real services for the cause of Numismatics, its political 'murmurings,' had they continued, might have eventually 'raised the roof' instead of accomplishing reforms. So the editor will relegate old Father Time, with his scythe and microscope, to his proper sphere, to make way for this, the first number of THE ELDER MAGAZINE." The present cataloguer, having read the "Philistine," agrees entirely. Original paper wraps detached but present on Vol. I, No. 11-12. Other issues generally fine. Five pieces. C-S 213. 23½ x 15 cm. 20.00

370. THE FLYING EAGLET. Published by Spiers Welsh and Frank G. Spadone. 1955-1959. Thirty miscellaneous issues from Vol. 1, No. 5 through Vol. 5, No. 4. Two duplicates. This privately published periodical began its life under the title "You Name It." Someone did, and it became "The Flying Eaglet." See the fine article in "The Asylum," Vol. II, No. 2 by Remy Bourne for interesting information concerning this and a number of other numismatic periodicals. The copies offered here range from very good to fine. 28 x 21½ cm. 30.00
371. MEHL'S NUMISMATIC MONTHLY. Published by B. Max Mehl. 1908-1917. Vol I, No. 1 through Vol. VIII, No. 1 inclusive. Complete run of this fine Mehl publication throughout its first seven years and one month. As stated earlier (see lot No. 229) the circulation of this periodical was not very large. Subsequently, few offerings as complete as this one are encountered. A wholly complete set brought $725.00 in Joe Lepczyk's 47th Sale last August in Boston. C-S 265. Generally fine copies. Rare this complete. 500.00
- 371A. NUMISMATIC GALLERY MONTHLY. Published by Abner Kriesberg and Abe Kosoff. 1948-1951. Twenty-nine issues. Vol. 1, No. 1 through Vol. IV, Nos. 11-12, Not complete, but a fine run of the first four years of this interesting and informative house organ. Some cornered pages, but in general, a fine grouping. Scarce and eagerly sought. 35.00
372. THE NUMISMATIC PHILISTINE. Published by Thomas L. Elder. 1909. Vol. I, Nos. 1 & 2. The only two issues printed. The predecessor to "The Elder Magazine" (see lot no. 369). As stated earlier, the "Philistine" proved to be somewhat of an embarrassment to Elder, perhaps due to his strong "political" stances, and racial innuendoes. In any event, it was probably just as well for the benefit of the science that he elected to discontinue its publication early on. With a life span of only two issues, and certainly a rather small distribution, this house organ must be considered very scarce if not rare. Seldom offered. Self covered. C-S 213. About fine. 40.00
373. THE UNITED STATES COIN CO. BULLETIN. Published by Wayte Raymond. 1914-1915. Vol 1, No. 1 and Vol. 2, Nos. 1, 2, & 3-4. Raymond's house periodical issued prior to the combined "Coin & Medal Bulletin" jointly published by him in 1916 with Edgar Adams (see lot no. 366). Again, as with most of the early dealers' publications, limited to small press runs and meager mail lists, resulting in these journals being quite scarce today. Few pencil annotations on first issue else about fine. 25.00

375. Green, Ben G. GREEN'S NUMISMATIST'S REFERENCE AND CHECK BOOK. Chicago, 1912. 120 pp. Purple cloth gilt. As the title implies, a collector's check list used to complete the various series. This was the property of G. L. Tilden, though not so identified, and was used extensively to record his purchases. Listings include space for condition, date purchased, from whom purchased, and price paid. Tilden meticulously entered the pertinent information throughout, along with scattered notations of unusual pieces. For example, he owned two 1897-O Morgan Dollars, one of which was purchased from Elmer Sears on Apr. 4, 1927 for $10.00. A notation states that the coin has a "plain edge—no milling." Interesting little item. Overall, a fine, sound copy. 16½ x 9½ cm. 25.00

400. COIN WORLD. 1963-1974. A nice run of this fine publication covering a period of more than eleven years. This consignment was brought in at a rather late date, and the cataloguer has not had an opportunity to examine each volume, due to the sheer bulk involved. In eleven good-sized boxes. The consignor has assured potential bidders that the run is complete from January, 1963 through January of 1974. Taken on his good faith, the lot is offered as is. No returns unless it is found that the contents are missing more than a scattered issue here and there. Also included are a few issues from 1962, one of which announces the discovery of the silver dollars in Treasury vaults which precipitated the "rush." It should also be mentioned that the possibility exists that ads and/or articles may have been clipped from some issues. I am not aware of a similar offering in recent years, thus I conservatively estimate the lot at fifty dollars, or less than five dollars per annum. 50.00
